Richardson

Lancrigg, Grasmere
31 March 1859

Dear Sir

I have to thank you much for so kindly sending me a copy of your lecture on the Gorilla - The incidental confirmation of the accounts of the Periplus of Hanno by the recent discovery of this Wildman is very interesting. I have always thought that the moderns undervalued the nautical adventure of the Phoenicians and Carthaginians, and that the intercourse of them mercantile people with the shores of the Atlantic both north and south of the pillars of Hercules was much more frequent than we have been accustomed to allow.

Lady Richardson desires me to give her kind regards to You & Yourself and

Dear Sir Ever
Yours faithfully
John Richardson.

Autograph of Franklin's fellow traveller Sir J. Richardson, M.D. K.C.B.
of arctic celebrity.

R. O.

DSI
DSI

RICHARDSON (Sir John, M.D., surgeon R.N., F.R.S., arctic explorer with Franklin, 1787-1865)
A.L.S. (JOHN RICHARDSON), Lancrigg, Grasmere, 31 March 1859, 2½ pages 8vo., £2, 2*s*

'I have to thank you much for so kindly sending me a copy of your lecture on the Gorilla—The incidental confirmation of the account of the Periplus of Hanno by the recent discovery of this Wildman (v. no. 5636) is very interesting. I have always thought that the moderns under estimated the nautical adventures of the Phœnicians and Carthaginians.' . . . The letter was addressed to Sir Richard Owen, F.R.S., who endorsed it: 'Autograph of Franklin's fellow traveller Sir J. Richardson, M.D., K.C.B. of arctic celebrity. R.O.'

LONDON SOTHERAN
52

12s 6d

'Le fer est un bon Conducteur de la Chaleur. La fonte aussi ; quant à la brique elle est rangée dans une catégorie, elle est parmi les mauvais Conducteurs, & il n'y a aucun Corps qui ne soit conducteur.' . . .

5851 POWELL (Rev. Baden, F.R.S., Savilian prof. geom., Oxon., 1796-1860) A.L.S. (B. Powe Oxford Feb. 6 1848 [to Sir John W. Lubbock, F.R.S.], 8 pages 8vo., £1, 5*s*

. . . 'I do not know what is Quetelet's authority for saying in general that all Meteors shine by their own l [He still thinks they are shining by reflexion]. . . . But at present I am much engaged with quite another subje